What we did:

Website exact address in unknown from memory – however a google search of “baltimore public schools, boardmaker” Lists Baltimore AT – Has hundreds of books done with BoardMaker 5.0 – has all the pictures done to be able to glue into the book – then has topic boards with 9, 20, 54 pictures with questions to ask that are “answerable” with boards. I have taken the files for topic boards – download them into my students “Mercury” device and added voice to it and my lesson about my book was programmed into her device in 15 minutes instead of hours.

What it accomplished:

Comments or Suggestions:

My A.I. kids are following along the text better too.
